

OUTLAW THREME ARE REJOICING.

Maryland Court of Appeals' Decision Allows Racing to Continue.

NOT ALL EASY SAILING

Iron Hill People Cannot Use More Than One of Their Three Tracks.

NO RACING UNTIL MARCH 8.

P. McDermott, the Jockey Who Was Ruled Off Recently, Has Brought Suit Against the Association for Defamation of Character.

Philadelphia, Feb. 24.—There is general rejoicing in the outlaw ranks tonight. The long looked for decision of the Maryland Court of Appeals in the case against the Iron Hill tracks as principal, but in reality a test case for racing interests in the State generally, was handed down this morning, and while the finding is adverse in some particulars it will not necessitate the closing of the tracks that many had anticipated.

By the decision the action of the lower courts by which Bookmakers Dwyer and Schuchow were found guilty of bookmaking on a track not regularly chartered is sustained. It also finds that one charter does not apply to different tracks run under the auspices of any one association regularly chartered, which means that the Keystone Association can use but one of their three tracks.

Of course, efforts will be made to obtain charters for new organizations that will control the two other tracks, but this may prove more difficult than those at the head of affairs anticipate.

An official of the Keystone Racing Association, however, who was not present at the decision, said that the pressure of travel on the Pennsylvania Railroad incident to the inauguration, which would have been expected to close down from March 2 to 6 inclusive, will make it advisable under the circumstances to forego racing the first three days of this week and then resume on Monday, March 8.

The windup at Barladies this afternoon was a good one all considered. P. McDermott, the jockey who was ruled off with his horses recently, has entered suit against the Maryland Association for defamation of character. Papers were served on the officers of the association to-day.

Summary: First Race—Five furlongs—Mountain Maid, 2 to 1, won easily by five lengths; Hayden, 6 to 1, second, and May Belle, 7 to 1, third. Time, 1:16.

Second Race—Five furlongs—Horse Arrow, 6 to 1, won by a head; Ellen Belle, 2 to 1, second, and Henry Hissler, 10 to 1, third. Time, 1:16.

Third Race—Five furlongs—Even, won easily by three lengths; Frank Fuller, 15 to 1, second, and Sola, 6 to 1, third. Time, 1:09.

Fourth Race—Five furlongs—Chick, 11 to 20, won easily by two lengths; Minnie, 10 to 1, second, and Connaught, 9 to 1, third. Time, 1:13.

Fifth Race—Five furlongs—Relief, 6 to 5, won by a head; Fanny, 6 to 1, second, and Silver Hill, 7 to 1, third. Time, 1:13.

Sixth Race—Six and a half furlongs—Harris, 7 to 1, won easily by one length; Beloved, 15 to 1, second, and His Grace, 6 to 5, third. Time, 1:39.

A STRONG CARD OF FIGHTERS.

Broadway A. C.'s Bouts on Saturday Night Are Well Worth Seeing.

The Broadway Athletic Club should be packed to the topmost rafters on next Saturday night, for on that occasion the above organization will present a first-class boxing entertainment for sweet charity's sake.

The program will provide three bouts, two of ten rounds each and one of twenty.

The first of the ten round contests will show Benny Leon, of this city and Dave O'Connor, a clever featherweight of Patterson, who the other will introduce Editor Snover, of Brooklyn, and Nick Collins, of this city, at 130 pounds.

The star attraction will be for twenty rounds between Johnny Gorman, of this city, and Jack Reid, of Ireland.

Gorman had from the West Side of this city and has defeated a score of good local middleweights. If he defeats Reid on Saturday night, Tom O'Rourke will match him against Dick O'Brien, of Boston.

Wants to Fight Dan Creedon.

Joe Ryan, the Australian middleweight pugilist, who has been knocking out all comers through the West, will arrive in this city on Monday night, when Sam Fitzpatrick, his manager, will endeavor to match him against Dan Creedon for a purse and a stake of $15,000.

MONOGRAM'S FIRST PRIZE.

Won the Honors of the Woman's Bowling Tourney by Just One Pin from the Independents.

The Woman's Bowling League tournament, which began on Wednesday, January 13, on the Elephant Alleys, Brooklyn, came to a successful conclusion yesterday evening. The Monogram team proved to be the champions, as was generally predicted, but not, however, until the very last ball had been thrown down the alley by Miss Foster, whose roll of nine pins won the coveted victory by just one pin. The score was: Monogram, 537; Independent, 533. The Independents have to be contented with second prize.

The Lady Bushwick and A. B. C. teams rolled immediately after the tie had been settled, to decide the winner of the third prize. The latter was easily, and, incidentally scored just one point over 600, which secures them an additional prize for this achievement.

Manager Curtis announced that the prizes, six in number, would be awarded next Wednesday afternoon at a banquet. Scores:

RYAN DEFEATS TRACEY.

It Took the Syracuse Welterweight Only Nine Rounds to Dispose of the Chicago Man.

Syracuse, Feb. 24.—Three thousand people, representing the sporting element of New York State, were present at the Alhambra to-night to witness the fight between Tommy Ryan, of Syracuse, and Tom Tracey, of Chicago, for the welter weight championship of the world, and they cheered most vociferously when the decision was given to Ryan in the ninth round. Tracey frequently fouled his Syracuse opponent, and had to be warned by the referee, "Yank" Sullivan. The first round had not progressed to any extent before Tracey fouled Ryan and was bloodied by the crowd and warned. In the eighth round it was seen that Ryan was in far better condition and he floored his Western opponent three times, the going saving him the last time from being counted out.

In the ninth round Tracey made a rally, but was badly wounded. Ryan sent him down with a blow on the chin, and when he got up floored him again. He stayed down nine seconds, and when he arose, made a rush at Ryan who sent him down to stay with left on point of chin.

"Dan" Creedon, who was in Tracey's corner, threw up the sponge and Ryan was declared the winner.

EXPLOSION KILLS SIX.

Twenty Tons of Nitro-Glycerine Cause a Terrible Shock—Persons Made Deaf and Blind.

London, Feb. 24.—An explosion occurred in the extensive works devoted to the manufacture of Nobel's explosives in Argyllshire, Scotland, this morning, killing six persons. The explosion took place while the men were making nitro-glycerine.

Twenty tons of nitro-glycerine exploded and the shock was tremendous beyond description. Windows were shattered for miles around and persons long distances away from the scene were thrown to the ground. All of the windows of a passenger train at Paisley, twelve miles away, were smashed. Persons in the vicinity of the explosion were rendered partially deaf or blind by the concussion.

CAPTAIN CHAPMAN TO REST.

Granted an Indefinite Leave of Absence Because of Ill Health.

Captain Chapman, of the Tenderloin precinct, was yesterday granted an indefinite leave of absence by the Police Board on account of ill health.

The Captain, according to the Police Surgeon Johnson, is suffering from a carbuncle on his right arm. His forearm and hand are badly swollen. Aside from the carbuncle the Captain is very badly run down. During his absence Sergeant McDermott will have charge of the station house.

FINAL GAME IN THE WOMAN'S BOWLING TOURNEY ON THE ELEPHANT ALLEYS, BROOKLYN.

Julian asked Siler what he would do in the event of one of the seconds entering the ring to throw water on his principal if the latter was groggy.

"I would announce a foul immediately and give the fight to the other man," said Siler.

Julian further suggested that the gloves should be seen to. They should be made in such manner that they would be rough seams on them that would scratch a man's face. Siler said the gloves were to be examined by him a few days before the fight and that he would see there was nothing objectionable about them.

He said Julian that he would regard an elbow punch as a foul. Now if he felt sure that it was done intentionally.

"Supposing," said Fitzsimmons, "that a man was fouled by the other fellow to go in and finish him, how about that?"

"I would consider the foul an important one, and I would decide against the man who was guilty of it."

Two Sets of Rules to be Made.

Julian suggested that Siler prepare two sets of rules, one admitting of hitting in the break and a free arm, and the other providing against it, and give a copy to each of the fighters so they might study them over and see which rules they preferred.

A definite conclusion was arrived at, however, the five party reserving their right to a final discussion of the rules until a later date.

The frames of the new arena are beginning to appear, and it is very evident that the time will be lost in erecting the building. It is given out that the additional pugilistic attractions are a fight between George Davis and Sam Fitzpatrick, for a purse of $25,000, and one between Martin Flaherty and Dal Hawkins for $25,000.

W. W. NAUGHTON.

NO BETTING BOOM YET.

A Few Small Wagers Made, but the Heavy Plungers Are Still Slumbering.

The betting on the fight did not take the expected brace yesterday; neither did large commissions on Corbett arrive from San Francisco. Hotel corridor talk had a large block of such money on the way. The only bets made were three of $100 at even odds on Corbett to win in twenty rounds.

Henry Bernheimer, of the brewing firm of Bernheimer & Schmidt, was said to have been the layer of even money on Fitzsimmons.

Chicago, Feb. 24.—Corbett odds went back to 10 to 5 to-day, there being a general suspicion that the recent bulge in New York is due to the operations of the gamblers there, who are looking to raise the odds in order that Corbett money may be placed at even if possible. At Chapin & Cores to-day several $50 to $100 bets were made, and at Vere Davis's one of $100 to $50. Davies now holds about $700 in small money, and Chapin & Cores, $300. Davies has not succeeded in placing the $1,000 bet with him to bet even, either way. Odds in O'Leary's pool room are quoted at 100 to 50.

Boston, Mass., Feb. 24.—More Fitzsimmons money was received here to-day, but the betting was much about the same, the prevailing odds being 10 to 5. Several fair bets were made at the Revere House, one being by Arthur Lewis, of $250 to $200 that Corbett would win in twenty rounds.

In Lynn one bet of $300 to $275 was made by John Heffernan, that Corbett would win. A few small bets were made at Gay's Hotel, and also at Tom's.

the last conference between the officials of the A. A. U. and the New York A. C. was sent to a mail vote, and it was the unanimous opinion of the delegates that the club be readmitted to the association.

Captain Barrow S. Weeks said yesterday that the N. Y. A. C. will now take an active interest in the affairs of the association, and their three delegates will be instructed to act for the interests of amateur sport.

President McMillan has called a meeting of the National Board of the A. A. U. for March 9. At this meeting many important changes in the constitution will be discussed, and various recommendations for the simplification of many of the rules will doubtless be adopted.

Application for the registration of athletes are coming in rapidly, as the new rule goes into effect on the 1st of March. After that date track amateur athletes, gymnasts and boxers will not be eligible to compete in open games unless they have been duly registered. The committee has decided that college athletes competing in college games under the intercollegiate rules do not require to be registered, and the same rule applies to schoolboy games.

Among the Cyclists.

Owing to the final hearing yesterday at Trenton, N. J., on the Gledhill Bicycle Baggage bill, there was no meeting of the Executive Committee of the L. A. W. President I. B. Potter and Second Vice-President C. F. Kireker were at the Jersey capital, and argued for the measure. The Executive Committee will hold a session tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

With such a prominent figure as City Magistrate Charles E. Simms, Jr., for president, the Associated Cycling Clubs of New York City should make itself felt as an organization. The Magistrate is a member of the Morris Wheelmen, an enthusiast of the pronounced type, and withal very popular, though a comparative newcomer in the world of wheels. His elevation to a cycling presidency, however, is not likely to cause him to show any more leniency than before to the guilty scoundrels who are brought into Jefferson Market Court.

After the cycle shows this week at Boston and Philadelphia the racing men who have been included in the exhibits of the concerns employing them will begin to prepare to depart for California and the South. Many of the flyers are even now at work, and this week New Orleans there will be some lively competition. Ted Eaton, the ex-buckster of Ellinbath, who has been more of a success at pushing pedals than at selling green goods, will meet Arthur Gardner, the Chicago Adonis, in a special series, and the two are much interested in the outcome. Topped by a sleek rider, re-splendent with diamonds, and always carrying a large jar has been able to give Champ a good close race for the Ben Brummel honors of the cycle racing game.

From a pretty reliable source comes the information that Zimmerman is on the verge of deciding to have another try at racing. That the "Grinder" would receive a most royal welcome goes without saying. That he would also give the hardest kind of a tussle to the present day contingent is a belief that is entertained generally. Harry Tyler, another "old guard," who was ever a credit to the game, is likewise scheduled for a reappearance.

While it required action by the National Assembly of the L. A. W. to permit the intercollegiate Association to govern by its rules college riders at college meets, it is in the power of the incoming Racing Board to allow clubs to pay the entrance fees and other necessary expenses of their racing men. Why should the colleges have an advantage over the clubs? All bodies governing amateur sports except the L. A. W. allow the payment of expenses. There is no reason why this matter idea should be an extreme. More liberality is demanded. Both the N. Y. A. C. and K. A. C. will have large cycle races this year, of course, and the fees and other incidentals will be paid by the riders. Perhaps.

YALE MAY ROW WISCONSIN.

Negotiations Going On to Bring About a Contest in New Haven Harbor.

New Haven, Feb. 24.—Captain Bailey, of the Yale crew, was questioned this evening concerning the report that Yale would have a race with the University of Wisconsin this Spring. He said that there was a probability of this, but that so far very little has been done, but letters on the subject have been exchanged between the managers of the crews and further negotiations will be carried on.

The purpose of the race would be to test Yale's new stroke and give the men some practice. The race, if the matter is successfully arranged, will probably be rowed in New Haven harbor, as it is not at all likely that the Yale crew will give their permission to the crew to leave New Haven during term time.

Jack Skelly Is Matchmaker.

The Cosmopolitan A. C., which is located at One Hundred and Fifty-fifth street and Eighth avenue, secured its license yesterday and will throw open its doors to the public on March 3. The arena is capable of seating 2,500 people. The club will hold weekly boxing exhibitions, and popular prices will prevail. Jack Skelly, the well-known boxer, has been secured as matchmaker. Skelly has been mixed up in multiple efforts for a number of years, and should prove a good man for the job.
